To Whom it may Concern:

I am the Campus Minister at Nouvel Catholic Central High School and I also teach Theology to the upperclassmen. I have known Samuel Bartels and his family for many years. Samuel is a joyful and reliable young man who is also very dedicated to growing in his Catholic faith. Mr. Bartels is a good student and is a willing contributor in my Catholic Theology classes.

Samuel Bartels is a confident young man who is easy to converse with and devoted to his Catholic faith. Samuel regularly steps up to serve when asked and is no stranger to hard work. Samuel frequently volunteers for service events in his parish, school, and community and to date has earned over 285 hours serving those in need over the last four years. He has been a loyal altar server, candle-bearer, and decorator at his parish, works regularly for the Mustard Seed Women's Shelter, and often can be found serving meals to the homeless at the Cathedral.

Samuel has been a proud athlete on the field of play for Varsity baseball and football where he served as team captain. He is known for his athleticism as well as for his ability to boost the morale and spiritual focus of his teammates and served on the football team's leadership council. Mr. Bartels is a member of the National Honors Society, he is a proud member of the Spirit Cross Honor Guard (a fraternal organization that leads the school during liturgies and faith-oriented activities), he has also earned the prestige title of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts program.

Mr. Bartels is a likeable, courteous, and hard-working young man. He is a very capable student who smiles freely and does not shy away from leadership opportunities. I am confident that Samuel will excel in academia at his university of choice and wherever God calls him to work and serve in the future. I recommend Samuel Bartels for your scholarship program, without any reservations.

Sincerely,

Bridget C. Jacqmain,
